

CBS Center for Civil Society Studies, Frivilligrådet and ISOBRO invites you to a seminar
Thursday the 9th of October at 2-4 PM
Diakonissestiftelsen, Peter Bangs Vej 1, indgang 5, 2000 Frederiksberg

Who Cares – Comparing Volunteering in Germany and Denmark

Volunteering is on the political agenda all over Europe, but Danish researchers and civil society organizations primarily interact with colleagues in Scandinavia and in the English speaking countries. Consequently, few of us are up to date with developments taking place south of the border.

At the seminar CBS Center for Civil Society Studies is proud to offer insight to the German-speaking traditions and innovations in the social field of voluntarism, featuring a guest scholar from Heidelberger Centrum für soziale Investitionen und Innovationen, research fellow Konstantin Kehl.

The seminar shall be conducted in English. Admission is free, but we ask you to register to Sarah Aronstein sa.dbp@cbs.dk

Programme

14:00-14:45 Konstantin Kehl: Social Investment Care Policies in Germany

14:45-15:00 Reflections from Mads Espersen, deputy chair of Frivilligrådet, The Danish National Council for Volunteering

15:00-15:15 Reflections from Robert Hinnerskov, director of ISOBRO, The Danish Fundraising Association

15:15-16:00 Open discussion (Professor Anker Brink Lund, CBS, facilitates and translates if participants prefer to address the seminar in Danish)

16:00-17:00 Informal networking

